LEGISLATIVE DEADLOCK BROKEN

Democratic Senate Recognized by the House and the Haggott Faction Returned to the Chamber —Final Effort to Unseat Arapahoes in the House Failed by Vote of 37 to 24.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Jan. 26.—Once again the white-winged political dove of peace has settled on the topmost pinnacle of the capitol building and the wheels of state machinery are running as though no gas had ever slipped. This morning the house recognized the Democratic senate and a moment later Lieutenant Governor Haggott and his band of followers marched into the senate chamber, he to the presiding officer's chair and the followers to their respective seats and Colorado no longer supports a dual senate!

The prevailing opinion today seems to be that while Mr. Feller is legally right in that the matter should be settled by the United States senate, still the Teller legislature should spend its remaining time of this session in transacting legislative business for the state.

Those Democratic senators whose duty will be to preserve the senate dignity have seen long days by, but have more than glad to welcome the returning Republicans for it gave them an opportunity for a three days' adjournment during which time the senate chamber will be cleared of light housekeeping utensils and odors, and the senators themselves will have an opportunity to visit a barber shop and the Turkish baths. The special duty police men and guards that have infested the building since last Monday night were given return checks to their old-time pursuits and tonight the state house presents a fairly inviting appearance. By the time Thursday has arrived painters, carpenters and plumbers will have removed the traces of the late political storm and the legislative halls and corridors will look as they did the day the Fourteenth general assembly convened.

Settling the Trouble

The Associated Press this morning made a bold prophecy that the end of the fight was near. The first step in the way of political fireworks during today prior to the adjournment was the unanimous vote by which Lieutenant Governor Haggott and his band of followers were ushered into the senate chamber, he to the presiding officer's chair and the followers to their respective seats, and Colorado no longer supported

BRAZIL'S EXPLANATION OF TROUBLE WITH BOLIVIA

By Associated Press

Paris Jan 25—The Brazilian legation here has issued an official statement by the Brazilian government explaining the latter's position towards the Acre dispute and the projected expedition into the Acre territory of President Pando of Bolivia

The statement declares that the Brazilian government has given Bolivia to understand that the contract with the Bolivian syndicate is a monstrosity in law since it contains the partial alienation of sovereignty to a foreign company and that the concession is annulled inasmuch as it disposes of territory which is at the present time the subject of dispute with Peru The statement proceeds to say that Brazil has always given a liberal interpretation to the treaty of 1867 seeking to favor Bolivia by procuring her facilities of communication on the Amazon and the Paraguay But Bolivia having then ceded to a foreign syndicate the rights conceded to her in the Acre territory Brazil will now sustain the strict interpretation of the treaty

After recounting the various proposals which have been made to adjust the dispute the statement concludes

Bolivia having refused all these proposals and President Pando having decided to march against the Brazilian subjects in Acre the president of Brazil has decided to concentrate troops in the adjoining states of Matto Grosso and Amazonas

TEMPESTOUS VOYAGE OF STEAMER DAWSON CITY

By Associated Press.

Port Townsend Wash Jan 27—The steamer Dawson City 36 days from Nome, reached port today under sail after a tempestuous voyage The on the trip was marked by a succession of accidents and exasperating delays while the fury of the elements seemed to combine to hinder her passage to her destination Soon after starting south the boilers commenced leaking with the result that the fresh water supply was consumed Then fuel began to run short and the vessel was forced to resort to such improvisations as could be fashioned into sails The vessel put into Port Moller for fuel and water and after remaining two weeks started again only to run into furious storms which drove her from her course Again fuel ran out so the Dawson City headed for Dutch Harbor to refill her bunkers and tanks At this port her sailors deserted and refused to continue on the voyage The run from Dutch Harbor to this port was made in 22 days which is considered a very good showing considering the weather and the facilities for handling the vessel The Dawson City brought no passengers except her owner John Brown of Seattle and his wife

BANISHED FOR SAKE OF PRESERVING HARMONY

By Associated Press

La Paz, Bolivia, Jan 27—At noon yesterday the first vice president Colonel Valeano was banished under an executive decree, for an indefinite period A police patrol conducted him to the Peruvian frontier The reason for this action is that Vice President Valeano being a leader of the opposition could not assume the presidency without creating political disturbances The second vice president Dr Anibal Capilles will assume the presidency when President Pando goes to Acre

During the past week several conferences have taken place between the Brazilian minister and President Pando The object of the meetings has not been definitely ascertained but it is believed that Brazil is seeking to dissuade the Bolivian government from proceeding with the military expedition to Acre It is said that Brazil is offering in exchange the Madeira territory situated on the Bolivian frontier with financial facilities for Acre

[illegible] ENGLISH-IRISH ALLIANCE [illegible] TRADE COMBINE

By Associated Press

New York Jan 25 –A large meeting of delegates of the United Irish-American societies of New York, presided over by Daniel F. Colahan, tonight resolutions were adopted denouncing the trial and death sentence of Colonel Arthur Lynch as a travesty on justice The resolution says in part

"We desire to express our belief that the British government will not dare to carry out the sentence imposed upon Colonel Lynch and desire to point out that the action of an English court, in finding a man who had become in the form a naturalized citizen of another country guilty of treason in England is unjust unfair and a gross violation of all the conditions under which millions of citizens had been added to the population of this country

At this time, when England for her own selfish purpose is attempting to conceal her enmity to America under the guise of friendship in order to the more thoroughly avail herself of our strength add power she endeavors to set aside one of the cardinal principles of our institutions and to take from us one of the greatest sources of our strength

"We denounce her action as cowardly brutal unchristian and predict that it will only serve to call the attention of the world to the fact that you cannot change the spots of the leopard so you cannot make the English government anything but stupid bloodthirsty cowardly and cruel

[illegible] ANGLO-AMERICAN TREATY

By Associated Press

London Jan 25 The signature of the Anglo-American treaty to settle the Alaskan dispute at Washington today has given great satisfaction to the English press on the ground that it furnishes at a critical moment in the Venezuelan trouble an undoubted proof of the uninterrupted friendliness existing between Great Britain and the United States This is the point which is celebrated in all the editorials on the subject almost to the exclusion of discussion of the intricate merits of the arrangement concluded

Little doubt is entertained here that the United States senate will accept the treaty and that the commissioners will ultimately meet in London but grave fears are expressed that no provision is made for the appointment of an umpire because in the event of the commissioners being equally divided in opinion it is said the controversy will be very little nearer a settlement One paper thinks in this event the dispute would be referred to The Hague tribunal It is hoped however that the publication of the text of the treaty may show more favorable prospects of the commissioners arriving at a compromise thus settling a long standing dispute of which it is admitted a settlement is imperative if international friction is to be avoided

The Times jokes at the constitution of the proposed commission which it says implies a high degree of confidence on each side in the equity and friendship of the other side The said commission with an odd man like Lord Alverstone becomes virtually an arbitration and

"Though arbitration is a very good thing in its way it is not really so good as direct negotiation it only be first it does not imply so much mutual confidence and good will Should it unfortunately happen that the commission be unable to arrive at a decision no harm will have been done to either party We shall only obtain a striking evidence of the ever growing complexity of the question and of the best sort to arbitration but we fully believe that the commission will arrive at a settlement in the only manner which leaves no sense of soreness or disappointment on either side.

By Associated Press

Toronto Ont Jan 25 An Ottawa dispatch to the Mail and Empire says the news from Washington of the signing of a treaty to refer the Canada Alaska boundary dispute to arbitration was not unexpected In the prime minister's absence from the city the other ministers do not care to discuss the matter or give particulars It is known however that the Ottawa end of the negotiations have been pretty much in the hands of Laurier and Fielding The query is being made here tonight how far is the treaty go? If the entire boundary dispute without the Dyea and Skagway question is to be referred to the arbitration committee then Canada does not stand to be in any worse position than she is today If however the ownership of Dyea and Skagway has been decided by the United States Canada is liable to find dangerous rivals in shipping the United States was on the British representative there go by the Canadian contentions

It is generally believed that Lord Alverstone lord chief justice of England will be the British commissioner He is the best known as Sir Richard Webster it was associated with Justice Robinson in the sessions of the Canada before the Bering sea commission Paris Justice Mills of the supreme court is another possibility of Canada

New York Jan 21 The vast amount of money paid out by companies in interest and dividends the payment in January of liabilities on which payment was withheld in December for the reason of swelling the item cash on hand In annual statements the making up of private pools to loan on speculative stocks has made money easy with the result that the bulls are pressing stocks upward There are not so many of the public in the market as there were in 1901 and 1902 The heavy declines have made them nervous But the great manipulators, men who enter the market for the purpose of securing control of properties are making plans which result in heavy purchasing One group of financiers is being closely watched The one to which I refer is headed by Edwin Hawley who is considered to be the Napoleon of Wall street The wonderful success which has characterized every campaign of this far sighted brilliant general put finance makes every move he makes particularly interesting It is believed that at the present moment he is engineering a plan which will have an important bearing on the western railroad map

Edward Huntington is one of the group of men who have become conspicuous in western cities as electrification men If my information is correct the basis of the great fortune he made prior to his inheritance from his uncle the late Collis P Huntington was laid in traction properties I note he has been recently elected director and vice president of the Stockton California, Electric Short Line Railway I do not know how many companies of this character are in California whose bonds Mr Huntington has taken but there must be many It seems that electric railway companies are making their men rich that railroads It is certain however that trolley cars are doing more to establish cheap and rapid transit in large and crowded districts than railroads The rails are built up into districts far from one another and the trolley between intermediate points

General Francis Vinton Greene the newly appointed police commissioner is said to be looking for himself a residence which will be within the district he is to police The commissioner is making his preparations to enter upon the duties of his office with the same energy and thoroughness which he displayed in connection with the military campaign in the Philippines which resulted in the capture of Aguinaldo and the subjugation of the insurgents Commissioner Greene will be assisted by Deputy Commissioner Bingham who has had charge of the police department of Cuba during the military occupation of the island by the United States Bingham is a graduate of Harvard and of the Columbia law school and is a member of the New York bar He is also a writer of ability on police matters and has written a number of articles on the police system of Cuba which have been published in the leading magazines of the country

Commissioner Greene will be assisted by Chief Inspector Cortright who has been in the police department of New York for many years and who is regarded as one of the most efficient officers on the force Cortright is a graduate of Columbia college and has written a number of articles on police matters which have been published in the leading magazines of the country

Yesterday he held three meetings at the First Baptist church and at the evening session the auditorium was crowded. His sermon was the subject of an interesting discourse. LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

By Associated Press.

London, Jan. 25.—While the general tone of the stock market throughout last week was firm, business was marked by the absence of speculative activity. Kaffirs did not respond to colonial Secretary Chamberlain's announcement at Johannesburg January 3 of the details for the financing of the new South African colonies. This announcement had already been discounted and the delay in the settlement of the labor problem in South Africa is causing uncertainty.

American securities were without striking feature, the movements were irregular probably owing to the developments in the Venezuelan affair which has reflected short possibility of their entanglement.

The most feature of the week was the movement in West Australian mines which follows a long period of depression, being due, it is believed, to the completion of arrangement for large consolidations. Home railways were affected by the disappointment at the dividend announcements which did not fulfill expectations, though the amounts carried forward exceeded those of last year.

The week closed easy and with a good prospect of a reduction in the bank rate next Thursday. Consols rose sharply in the middle of the week on government purchases but the advance was not maintained.

RYAN IS WILLING.

By Associated Press.

Kansas City, Jan. 25.—A special to the Times from Hot Springs, Ark., says:

Tommy Ryan the champion middleweight, who arrived here today received a telegram from Jack Herman manager of the Fort Erie Athletic club at Buffalo, asking him if he would fight Fitzsimmons there for a purse of $55,000. Ryan replied that he would, if Fitzsimmons would trim down to the middleweight limit.

BOWLING CONGRESS

By Associated Press.

Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 25.—The call for the annual convention and tournament of the American Bowling congress to be held at Indianapolis, February 23 to March 1 has just been issued. All leagues, tournaments or associations who desire to place any business before the meeting are recommended to put it in writing and mail it to Secretary Karpf.

BASEBALL.

Princeton and Pennsylvania will meet at Princeton May 9—the first meeting of these two universities on the diamond since 1894.

Clark Griffith for the first time admitted his authority as manager of the Greater New York club Tuesday when he stated the team would condition at Atlanta, Ga., leaving March 15 or 20. Later it will go to New Orleans on April 6, when Cleveland is scheduled to leave.

Members of the Yale baseball team other than the pitchers will be called out in two weeks shortly after Dr. Murphy, the new coach, arrives. The pitchers have been practicing during the last three days.

Inasmuch as Dr. Doherty, it seems to be the one that has done most to block the baseball peace deal, the following summary of Mr. Delehanty's value is of interest. It is by Mayor Fleischmann of Cincinnati who has not been in baseball long enough to be and would also settle indubitably the question of the season's champion which is now oftentimes in dispute. It is unlikely that arrangements for the formation of the league will be in satisfactory shape in time for the coming season. Connell is the prime mover in the plan and has the success of the league much at heart.

Delehanty says that he will play with Washington in obedience to the rulings of the peace commission of the two leagues, but that under no circumstances will he return the $2,500 advance money given him by Manager McGraw. According to the peace agreement the club with which the player who has received advance money from another club may refund the advance money the same being deducted each month from his salary until all is paid. If Delehanty sticks to his determination not to refund any of this money he will probably be blacklisted and compelled to quit the game.

Edward G. Barrow, manager of the Toronto club of the Eastern league, has been released by that club to manage the Detroits. He was president of the Atlantic league from 1896 to 1899, and has managed clubs in Paterson and Wheeling. He formerly lived in Philadelphia and is well and favorably known. Dwyer will be the business manager of the team.

The Sporting Life seems to think that the Cubs have a jewel in Otto Williams who was with Memphis last year. He played with Dan Vaughan in a few games and made a fine impression.

BOXING.

It is said that Dan Stuart is trying to get a law passed by the Arkansas legislature legalizing prize fights between points of the law. If the law is passed he will erect a mosquito fight arena.

Sporting writers [illegible] taking credit for bringing Jim Jeffries to the stand. He [illegible] for the benefit of the [illegible] Haves Valley A. C. [illegible] a fight between [illegible] and Corbett, unless a more liberal offer is made, he will certainly and suddenly become the most unpopular champion the world has ever known.

Jack Munroe, the Anaconda miner, fought his third professional fight at Butte, Mont., on Friday night, having for an opponent Joe Hayes, a 240 heavyweight. Munroe, who is now in four meeting all comers, agreed to stop Hayes in four rounds. Hayes, however, stayed but not until Munroe got tired punching him.

In the coming fight between Jim Callahan, and Benny Yanger of Chicago, there will be one referee and two judges after the A. A. U. system. This method has been adopted because of the impossibility of finding an acceptable referee. The Lyceum A. C., before which club the fight is to take place, has refused to use the services of Referee Ben Purcell, who refereed the former fight between the two featherweights.

The contest between Billy Maynard, Tacoma, Denver Ed. Martin, and Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight of San Francisco, will take place in Los Angeles on Thursday, February 13. It will be 20 rounds for Martin and Maynard, and Martin will start training at once.

Negotiations are pending for a February date at the Reliance club at San Francisco between Kid Carter and Myer, the fighting negro who beat Fred Russell and Toothpick Kelly so handsomely in the south. McVey, cruiserweight, Carter, the latter will not quibble over any big question with any but the champion.

The fact that Jack Munroe is a paying drawing card, does not promise to be very beneficial for some time. Munroe is charged with the fact that he is the weakest attraction New York and Brooklyn have had. He got money for his appearance, but the attraction Munroe is managed by Kelly is not popular enough. The fans want the heroes of the fights of last week, namely Jeffries.

THE LAST WAIL OF BARON WOLCOTT.

TELLER I did not think to shed a tear
In all my miseries but thou hast forced me
Since thy election, to make a statement
Lets dry our eyes and thus far hear me, Teller
And—when you reach the senate, as you will shortly
And tread the halls of marble, where no mention
Of me more must be heard of—say, I sent thee
Say, "WOLCOTT"—that once trod the ways of glory,
And sounded all the depths and shoals of honor—
Found thee a way, out of his wreck, to rise in
A sure and safe one, yet thou nearly missed it
Mark but my fall, and that that ruined me
Teller, I charge thee, fling away ambition
Twas that sin ruined Arnold, what man since then
Born an AMERICAN can hope to win by't
Love thyself last: cherish those hearts that hate thee
Corruption wins not more than honesty—
I know, because by turns I've tried both of them
Still in thy right hand carry gentle peace
To silence envious tongues. Be just, and fear not Let all the ends thou aims't at be thy country's Thy Gods and Truth's, beware the Trusts and Wall street,
Do not despise the Woman vote, or reckon
The Gang can be more powerful than the people
Keep all thy pledges though it cost thee dear
And do not try to grab quite all the fruit
Of other men's successes. The venal press
Beware, and most of all I say beware
Big Bill and his so called Denver Republican,
For had his circulation been a third,
His 'influence' a tenth of what I paid for
I need not feel the waste of all that money
And had I served my state with half the zeal
I served myself not thou, but I, would be Elected and on my way to Washington
—From the 'Rump' Shakespeare.

The familiar lines of Lord Wolsey's speech to Cromwell known to all school boys fit the present political situation so aptly and with so little paraphrasing that it is really a wonder that the fallen Baron of Wolhurst did not resort to blank verse to bid farewell, a long farewell to all his greatness.

Ex Senator Wolcott's valedictory remarks—in all gentleness let them not yet be called a posthumous address—as furnished to the press for publication on Sunday night were not intended to convince anyone of the justice of the Wolcott cause or the merit of the Wolcott program.

Nothing that Mr. Wolcott can say will make any difference to those who have opposed him; nothing that he can do—apparently—will lessen the hold he has maintained upon a few devoted followers.

Wolcott and nobody else is responsible for Teller's election.

Wolcott and nobody else is responsible for the series of disgraceful and farcical events that have stained the record of the state in the past two weeks.

And it is quite fitting that Wolcott and no one else should pronounce the words which mark the end of the hope of electing a Republican senator this year, and which also mark the permanent withdrawal of Wolcott as the Boss of the Republican machine in this state.

There is no part of the Wolcott statement that rings more false than that in which he attempts to hold the anti-Wolcott Republican members of the assembly responsible not only for his defeat, but for the election of Senator Teller.

Mr. Wolcott assumes and he has assumed throughout the campaign that his own personal success was to be made the main object of party efforts and the supreme measure of party success. He has demanded that everything else be subordinated to this and that the result he desired should be gained even though it involved the wanton violation of solemn pledges made to the people and the throwing out of Democrats elected to the assembly, without regard to the evidence presented in the contests.

He has demanded further that the anti-Wolcott Republicans of the house should enter a "joint session" with a minority of the senate and should seek to secure a seeming majority of the assembly by throwing legally elected Democrats out of the house, when they and he knew that such a course would result in the unseating of the Republican hold-over senators, thus giving the Democrats absolute control of the senate in 1905 and probably in 1907.

The anti-Republican members of the house could not honorably recognize a rump senate that had been pronounced illegal by the Republican governor and the Republican attorney general, nor could they fail to recognize that four year senators are of greater importance to the party than are two year representatives.

And at the same time these genuine Republicans were bound to consider the effect that their course might have on the administration of Governor Peabody, an administration by which the Republican party of the state will be largely judged, and which they could not afford to entangle in a mass of legislation of doubtful legality, or to embarrass with a failure of the necessary appropriations.

As for the charge that the anti-Wolcott Republicans entered a combination with Democrats to defeat Mr. Wolcott, if that charge were true, the genuine Republicans might plead without offense before the Colorado public that they preferred an honorable Democrat to that Wolcott who was so obnoxious to public sentiment in this state that their open pledges against him were necessary to secure their election.

If they had gone to such an extreme it would have been no more than the Republicans have done in the state of Delaware where a combination with Democrats has been preferred to surrender to an Addicks who is not more obnoxious than Boss Wolcott of Colorado.

But these charges are not true. No such deal was made with the Democrats and the anti-Wolcott Republicans were at all times sincere in their efforts to secure the election as senator of any Republican whom they could honorably support.

The only man who at the beginning of the legislative session could have done anything toward the bettering of the Republican chances in the legislature was Edward O. Wolcott. His absence from the state and from the senatorial contest would have been a guarantee both to Republicans and to Democrats that the contest cases were to be heard honestly and decided fairly and with justice. Under such circumstances it is possible that the Arapahoe cases might have been decided according to the facts without arousing Democratic partisanship to such an extent as to throw out Republican senators whose election has never been seriously contested. But the presence of Wolcott, the efforts of his gangsters, the support of his hireling newspaper, and the radical revolutionary and utterly unjust measures that were proposed as a part of his selfish program not only aroused Democratic partisanship to its utmost limit but went far toward justifying before public sentiment any retaliatory measures that the Democrats might adopt and these same things made his overthrow certain and complete.

In the great fight against Wolcott that has now been won no one person has contributed more to the result than the Big Boss himself.

But the Republican party is now in a position where it can go forward to fill its true mission of serving the highest political interests of the people and the state. It is to be hoped that a long time may intervene before another Boss like Wolcott makes it necessary to proceed to such extremes to rid the party of his fatal weight.

FAITHFUL WORKERS FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

IT SELDOM happens that men have the opportunity to perform such a public service as that which Messrs. Stewart, Goudy, Mears and Parley and their associates have rendered to the people of this state.

It has not been an easy task and it has not been a pleasant one to stand firm for the interests of the people against the powerful influences brought to bear by the Wolcott machine but these gentlemen have the satisfaction not only of knowing that they have been doing their duty according to their own consciences but that they have gained the approval of 90 per cent of the Republicans of this state and of all whose good opinion is worth having.

As for the malicious denunciations of subsidized newspapers and the taunts and falsehoods of the gangsters these are no more than was to be expected and are to be considered a badge of honor rather than otherwise.

In this connection mention should also be made of the two El Paso county representatives, Messrs. Dolph and Aitken whose course has been thoroughly in accord with the sentiments of the great majority of their constituents and who have already shown themselves of that possession, an ability that belongs only to legislators of exceptional merit. There is no doubt that these two gentlemen will in the balance of their legislative term continue the good work they have so well begun.

A GOVERNOR OF THE RIGHT SORT.

GOVERNOR PEABODY has already gone far to justify the predictions of those who urged his nomination and election. His message and his appointments have met with general satisfaction and his course through the semi-formal struggle has been characteristic of a high minded, fearless, impartial and conscientious chief magistrate.

His declaration that he was not going to indulge in revolution because a few men of his party had gone wild appealed to the sober good sense of the people of this state and this favorable impression will be deepened by the further declaration that No amount of excitement can make 11 a majority of 7.

Governor Peabody appears to be an example of the best type of the business man in public affairs. Placed in a position where a single mistake might have suffered in the most serious consequences he has not hurried his duties in a way to win the respect of his political opponents as well as the admiration of his friends and the cordial approval of all the people of the state.

Governor Peabody has already saved his party from a most serious danger and if his administration proves to be all that it now promises he will have conferred an immense benefit upon Republicanism in this state and gone far toward securing for it the permanent approval and support of the people of Colorado.

DID DR. GUNSAULUS LIE?

THE OLD discussion as to whether it is ever right to tell a lie may be revived as a result of a recent Chicago incident.

Rev. Frank Gunsaulus of the People's church was preaching at the Studebaker theater in Chicago when he abruptly said:

"You will please pardon me for stopping in the midst of my sermon but I am suffering from an old injury to my hip this morning and find it impossible to continue. Kindly pass out at the conclusion of the benediction and proceed to your homes without the usual closing services."

His auditors says the news item who had listened to the first part of his sermon were surprised at its sudden termination. They passed out of the building quietly not knowing that the pastor had dismissed them suddenly for the purpose of avoiding a panic.

The theater was rapidly filling with smoke when Dr. Gunsaulus brought the services to a sudden close. The trouble was found later to be with a broken furnace but it was said there was no danger from fire.

If there had really been a fire and the building had been destroyed would Dr. Gunsaulus have been justified in his falsehood?

Was he justified when he believed lives were actually endangered?

If Dr. Gunsaulus did not lie what is the proper definition of that word?

The December bulletin of the University of Colorado contains interesting data and papers in regard to the quarto-centennial celebration at that institution. These give a very impressive showing of the rapid progress which has been made by the university in the past 25 years, its importance as the head of the state educational system, and the value and magnitude of the work that it is now doing.

Descriptions of the new American armored cruisers show the progress of modern ship building. Ships like the Tennessee and the Washington are well named armored cruisers, for they can outrun any of the old cruisers and outfight any of the old battleships.

FROM THE PRESS OF THE NATION.

No Election.

The action of the Colorado senate in throwing out two Republicans elected last fall whose seats have not been contested in the way prescribed by the statute governing contests throwing them out by the brute force of a vote and not vote will probably answer the purpose of the revolutionists in preventing the election of a United States senator this winter. Of course the courts will never admit Mr. Teller to a seat obtained that way. The claim that these seats were thrown out in retaliation for the decision of some contested seats in the house in favor of the Republican claimants has no weight. In the house the seats were contested according to law the certificate of fraudulent voting in Denver taken in the presence of both parties and a vote about one half of the Arapahoe county delegation was ousted. Both other Democrats from that county were confirmed in their seats. That is the legitimate procedure and there is no reason to believe that the judgment of the senate approved by the house was just one. The sin that it punished, if it was a sin, is not to be visited upon the heads of innocent people. Let every thing be decided unless if Democratic majority in the senate did such things to offset it but it ought to prevent the retention of Teller if one half the seats void of frauds in the election last fall in Denver. [New York Evening Post.]

The Object Lesson in Colorado

The two things in the state upon which the most impressive object lesson could be given by the election of Teller to the senate are the two following: First, the lesson to the people that the strength of the existing political machine in Colorado is such that it can defy the will of the people as expressed at the polls. Second, the lesson to Democrats that the bolting Republicans and Democrats in the legislature also in the governor's office will not be rewarded by the Republicans of the state. Dislocated Her Shoulder

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm of Pigeon Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon reset it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and painful for very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep well, which she had not done for several days. This was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by all druggists.

Not Eager for Business

Judge Magoon of Rutland was recently chatting with a Barre lawyer in front of a prominent business man of this city and a favorite joke of the judge's about his extreme caution. The lawyer complained that owing to his generous allowance of $5 000 a year he was getting heavily in debt. The judge scolded with him and then remarked:

"I suppose after you get rich I can intend to retire from business."

President Castro's Wife

When President Castro of Venezuela married Miss Cristina Fernandez de Pulido before he made known his intentions to the world, many persons were surprised that he should choose a wife from the middle classes of the people. But Castro knew what he was doing. He knew that the women of the upper classes in Venezuela, as in all Spanish countries, are not educated, and that they are not companionable to their husbands. Castro wanted a wife who could help him politically, and he knew that Cristina Pulido was a woman of unusual intelligence and education. She is a writer of ability, and has published several books. She is a brilliant conversationalist, and is a woman of charming personality. Her influence over her husband is very great, and it is said that she is responsible for many of the changes which have been made in the cabinet since Castro became president. She is also a devoted wife and mother, who expresses her views frankly to her husband. She is a woman of strong will power, and is said to have a very high opinion of herself.

Many Jokes From One Idea

Very often one idea serves for a good many jokes, says Marshall P. Wilder, who should be considered an authority on the subject as he has passed the ninety mark with more people than any man in the country today. General Sherman once wrote me a seven-page letter about jokes and other solemn things, he says. It was by way of acknowledging a copy of my book 'People I Have Smiled With.' In the letter he told the story of the Irishman who was too much given to strong drink.

"You must sign the pledge and stop drinking," said his priest, "or you will be so saturated with the fumes of liquor that some time when you try to blow out a candle your breath will take fire and you will blow up."

"Then give me the pledge," said Pat, and he wrote: 'I hereby solemnly promise never to blow out a candle again.'

"That is General Sherman's story. Now here is the way I fixed it up:

"'You must stop drinking, Pat, or you will go blind.'

"Well, said Pat, I guess I've seen about everything."—New York Times.

What the Morgan Interests Control.

In September, 1902, the Morgan interests controlled 35,000 miles of American railways, or more than the mileage of Germany, Great Britain and Ireland combined. These lines have a capitalization of $3,000,000,000, which is more than three times the total interest bearing debt of the United States. In addition the Morgan influence is powerful in almost all the other important railroad systems of the country. The direct Morgan interests include 18 railroad systems, one ocean steamship company, 32 industrial combinations, seven banks, three telegraph and cable companies, seven great insurance companies and innumerable smaller corporations of every kind. The total capitalization of these various combinations is $6,448,000,000—an amount greater than the national debt of any country in the world, and twice the debt of Great Britain. The United States Steel corporation is equal to about twice the cost of the Boer war, and its net profits for the current year are estimated at $110,000,000, a sum about equal to the annual cost of the British navy, and but little short of the total revenues of Spain. The gross net income of all the Morgan organizations is probably nearly or quite equal to the public revenues of any of the great powers of Europe, and the taxes on these companies by the entire cost of maintaining all the departments of New Jersey.

But Mr. Morgan does not depend on the dividends of his stocks for the bulk of his income. His chief business at present is promoting, organizing, underwriting, buying and selling the railroad and industrial securities which he has organized. The United States Steel corporation, for example, was organized under the auspices of Morgan & Co., who pocketed a profit of $87,000,000 in the deal, and still more profit is to be made from the sale of the securities. The Northern Pacific deal, in which Morgan & Co. were the principal operators, was handled with characteristic skill. Mr. Morgan, who controls with his own money but a small fraction of the securities, has not hesitated to use his influence to obtain behalf of the roads with which he is connected, and with the assistance of the Morgan banks, trust companies and insurance companies, he can command the use of enormous sums of money. Mr. Morgan's profits will be forthcoming as a matter of course.

Created and Maintained by Vinol.

THAT THE FOOD IS DIGESTED IS ASLO EQUALLY NECESSARY.

We Recommend Vinol as an Appetite Creator.

WE GUARANTEE THAT VINOL WILL AID DIGESTION.

Vinol is the greatest aid to digestion that we have ever known.

It is because Vinol acts so beneficially upon the stomach that it accomplishes so much good.

Vinol contains the active curative principles that are found in cod liver oil without any oil or grease.

These medicinal elements act so favorably upon the stomach that this organ obtains for itself the elements necessary for creating new flesh muscle tissue and for making rich red blood.

When the stomach acts easily and naturally a desire is created for good simple food and a good appetite is the sure result.

With cod liver oil as formerly taken the medicinal elements which it contained were too often unable to counteract the harm that was done by the obnoxious grease that enveloped them.

Now that in Vinol we have those same elements separated from the vile tasting fat we have a tonic and rebuilder that is simply marvelous in its action.

The following is a letter that will explain itself:

"This is to certify that I have used six bottles of Vinol, and have found it of great value as an appetizer and tonic in general debility. I have received so much benefit from its use that I gladly furnish this testimonial in order that others may be induced to give it a trial and prove to themselves its recuperative powers.—MRS. ELIZABETH FEENEY, Waterbury, Conn.

We want every one in this place to know more about our Vinol, how it cures and what it cures. Certainly the greatest tonic and rebuilder we have ever sold.

We, therefore, cordially invite any one interested to call upon us; and we want all to bear in mind that we will gladly refund to any one who is not satisfied with the action of Vinol every cent they pay for it.

Some Women of the City Have Decided to Learn to Cook

Yesterday afternoon at one o'clock the teaching class held by the Home and Education department of the Woman's club from the School of Domestic Science and Art gave her first lesson before the new class. This first lesson consisted of a demonstration of a fish dinner, beginning with soup and going through to the dessert. The various dishes were carefully prepared under the supervision of the teacher and tested sampled by a number of invited guests. Each member of the class prepared a dish particularly hard to prepare in this attitude. Under the teacher's direction however it was a success. The lesson consisted also of talks in connection with the work of preparing the food each student taking notes and asking questions as the work progressed. Yesterday's lesson was the first to be given one each week. The women are taking great interest in this innovation.

Stratton Estate Leases Matthews Ranch Property to T. J. Brown

The administrators of the Stratton estate have leased the Matthews ranch lying south of the city on the Bayfield district to T. J. Brown. The property consists of 160 acres which was purchased by Mr. Stratton a few years since. Owing to the rapid growth of the city in that direction the property has become very valuable for residence purposes but as this is a matter for the future the administrators decided it was inadvisable to sell it at the present time. Mr. Brown formerly managed the Johnson ranch which he has recently leased to Chicago parties. The Matthews ranch, on account of its proximity to this and Mr. Brown will have charge of both properties for the coming season.

Public Schools Began Their Second Semester Yesterday

The public schools of the city opened yesterday for the second semester and the sessions will continue uninterrupted until the spring vacation which occurs during the week of March 30-April 3. There was considerable changing in the classes yesterday owing to the beginning of the new term. About 500 pupils entered the primary grades of the different buildings over the city and about 50 pupils entered the eighth grade from the seventh grades of the various buildings. Those who entered the High school from the eighth grade numbered about 60. Several new classes were organized in the High school and the schedule of classes underwent a big change.

Among the teaching staff the following changes took place. Miss N. Ile Thompson who has been acting as assistant principal in the Eighth street and Bristol schools was transferred to the fifth grade in the Helen Hunt school and Miss Ila Whitsitt who has been teaching in that grade was transferred to the fifth grade in the Bristol school. Miss Thompson will be in charge of the fifth grade in the Helen Hunt school.

Many Letters Disposed of by College Committee

Quite a number of motions were heard by Judge Cunningham in the district court yesterday. This morning the jury in the Fairley case in the district court will report and it is likely that some little criminal business will come up. These orders were made by Judge Cunningham:

Sydney A. Pierson vs. the Colorado Springs & Interurban Railway company defendant's motion to make more specific etc. Case taken under advisement.

John S. Tucker et al. vs. John F. Milliken et al. cause to be struck by consent.

Edwin A. Stewart et al. vs. John M. Fitch et al. demurrer of the defendants argued and taken under advisement to January 30.

W. H. Pollard et al. vs. Evans Atkinson et al. motion to strike out argued and taken under advisement.

Frances M. Cole vs. Lorenzo Cole motion to garnish fees of summons argued and taken under advisement.

Colorado Springs Electric company vs. H. H. Stevens et al. motion of defendant to require plaintiff to elect with counts it will stand upon denied defendant allowed 10 days to plead.

Antonio De Grandi vs. the Arkansas Brick and Tile company demurrer of defendant given 10 days to answer.

Application of J. F. Smith continued to January 30.

Clarence Sears to Direct Rehearsals of "Sally Pasha"

Owing to the illness of Allen Jeffcott will be out of the city for the next six weeks and will be unable to attend the rehearsals for said Parish the members of the local Stage Hands union have secured Clarence Sears to direct the musical part of their first amateur theatrical this year. Mr. Sears is organist of the Grace Episcopal church and the stage hands are congratulating themselves that they have secured so fortunate as to secure him for the direction of their opera. Mr. Sears has already taken charge of the music of the production and is now testing the different voices and assigning the different parts. Mr. Sears will also have charge of the musical work of the home which is to be composed of some of the best voices in Colorado Springs. The said pageant is to be presented some time in March.

New Contest Solicited in the Patriotic Essay Contest

Owing to an error in the original announcement it has been decided to hold another essay contest among the pupils of the public schools for the prize recently offered by the local members of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics and essays will again be written on January 19.

February 12 was the date originally set for the contest but owing to a mistake the essays were written on the 22nd of this month. Upon such short notice the pupils did not have much of an opportunity to build upon a subject and consequently their best efforts were not turned in last Thursday although the essays submitted contained several good ones. Pupils from the eighth grade will be allowed to enter the next contest as well as those of the sixth and seventh grades. A certain number of essays probably three will be selected from those written at each building and the final will be submitted to the committee from the B. of U. A. M. and Superintendent Deuell.

The essays are to be written upon any patriotic subject and must not contain less than 200 nor more than 300 words.

College Students Are Having Semi-annual Examinations

Examinations began at the college yesterday and will continue throughout the week. The second semester begins next Monday and it is expected that a large number of students from this city and out of town will enter college for the remaining term.

President Slocum and the members of the faculty are now engaged in planning the different courses and in working out the program for the coming semester. In speaking of the matter yesterday one of the members of the faculty stated that it was doubtful at the present time whether or not the new law requiring two years of Greek for the degree of A. B. would be inaugurated with the coming semester. We will hardly have the necessary time to successfully start these two languages, as much as we would like to give the students the option of them this year, he said. So it is very probable that the proposed additions to the curriculum will not be made until the fall.

Although the law does not go into effect until the first of June, preparations are being made now for the observance of the Summit Day of Prayer for colleges. This day is always observed in the college and by all other institutions of the kind over the country January 29 is the date usually set for the services but this year, owing to the fact that it would fall in the midst of examinations, the members of the faculty have decided to postpone the Day of Prayer until the 12th of next month. There will be a mid-week class meeting at 4:30 in the morning and a talk by President Slocum at 6:30. At 10 o'clock the students will listen to a sermon by one of the local divines and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the members of the faculty will greet the students in their offices. In the evening a joint meeting of the College Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. will be held in Perkins auditorium. The Annual Day of Prayer has become quite established as days of colleges all over the country and its observance is general although in the present time the day has been changed to many places to a Sunday in the school's year.

Last year the students were given at the college on April 5.

ANACONDA LESSEES

Are Maintaining Monthly Production of Some 600 Tons—Lessees on the Courley C aim of the Rose Nicol Company Have Good Ore---Active Development in Vicinity of Gillett.

Special to the Gazette

Cripple Creek Jan 26—At the present time lessees operating on the estate of the Anaconda property, are maintaining a splendid monthly production of some 600 tons of ore that will all run in the neighborhood of $30 or better to the ton and the receipts from this to the Anaconda company in royalties is rapidly building up the treasury in a manner that will permit the company doing extensive work should it so desire during this year on ground which is not worked by lessees. There are some 35 sets of lessees working on the property and of that number about 17 are shipping ore making the above tonnage About the best looking lease is on block 70 known as the Grace Greenwood operated by the Zenobine Leasing company which is now putting some 300 tons of ore a month that runs about $70 to the ton This leasing company is also sinking the shaft is at present all ore is coming from very shallow workings

Lessees Allen and Benson operating the Courley claim of the Rose Nicol company on Battle mountain have struck good ore at the depth of between 90 and 100 feet The vein runs between four and five feet in width and samples taken run anywhere from $20 to $40 to the ton in gold The vein is a very promising one and the lessees have worked hard in pushing the development and it is now thought that they have the making of a mine as they make shipments every now and then from the property

The outlook for Gillett is very encouraging Active development works are being prosecuted on many of the properties in that vicinity and all are receiving very encouraging results It is also stated on good authority that two cyanide mills will shortly be constructed near the city one of which will work the tailings dump of the old Gillett mill with a capacity of fifty tons a day to begin with The other it is reported will be erected by S M Tutts who owns some thirty acres of ground on Carbonate hill in close proximity to the Michigan pipe line which will furnish an abundance of water for all milling purposes

This month the Wild Eagle Leasing company will ship 1,000 tons of ore that will average $30 to the ton The ground has been opened sufficiently to demonstrate that this lessee company has in sight in that production for some time to come While the shaft is but 60 odd feet in depth the showing is the most wonderful one in all the history of the camp It shows that the ore is going down in a manner that is very pleasing to the management After this shaft is sunk a little further sufficient depth in the winze the leasing company will then drift from the bed shaft and determine whether or not the ore body is continuous in depth Should the prospects warrant the belief that the ore body is continuous with depth operations will be carried on through the old shaft giving the lessees a chance to get out of stoping ground before the Pikes Peak Tunnel company will have reached the ore body in the Gillett section The Pikes Peak Tunnel company will run a crosscut to the south from the bed shaft and will tap the ore body at a depth of 1,000 feet From this point will be run a drift to the north and south on the ore body Shipments which is not far from the present workings

PROSPECTORS FIND SEAM-SHAFT

The Eleanor and Dorothy Gold Mining company is letting jointly a contract to George Cochran of Cripple Creek to drive the crosscut which will be run in an attempt to open up the Sedan Sunshine vein on these properties Mr Cochran will have men at work on the property by Wednesday morning and the work will be pushed with all possible speed This crosscut will run west from the shaft and it is thought the vein will be encountered within 25 or 30 feet The territory lying west of the shaft will be thoroughly prospected as the claims in that district are known to be rich in gold and it is thought that this crosscut will develop some big ore bodies

ANOTHER GOOD STRIKE REPORTED FROM WILD HORSE

It is reported from Cripple Creek that another strike of considerable importance has been made in the Wild Horse mine of the United Mines company While the report is not absolutely confirmed the source of information is so reliable as to stamp the story with truth According to the reports received in this city an ore body 12 feet in width has been opened up on the ninth level south of the shaft This assays in this body run from one to four ounces in gold to the ton so that the vein in its entire width will ship pay ore

MAY BE DEED TO LEASE THE BEACON HILL CLAIM

An important meeting of the Beacon Hill Ajax Gold Mining company was held at the office of President Barbee The matter before the meeting was an application for a deed and lease upon the property of the company The question was discussed at considerable length but the meeting finally adjourned without coming to a definite conclusion as to the offers stated after the meeting it is understood some negotiations will be given although the leasing contract the proposition will probably be adopted The recent developments in the Ajax & Nugget have caused a great deal of unusual activity on Beacon hill and all properties in the immediate vicinity are in demand The ground of the Beacon Hill Mining company is also looking very well and it is believed that the deed and lease will be given to the Mining Stock Exchange Mr Barbee is the president of the Beacon Hill company and Mr Hendricks is the vice president

MANY STOCKHOLDERS ELECT ANNUAL MEETING

The annual stockholders meeting of the Mary Nevin Gold Mining company was held at the office of Secretary H F Avery in the Bank block yesterday afternoon Out of a total amount of stock issued of 1,750,000 shares there were represented by proxy 480,000 shares and represented by personal attendance 258,363 shares The total number of shares voting thereon was 1,038,363 an unusually high percentage of the total issue Practically all of this stock was voted for a board of directors consisting of L M De La Vergne Milton E Stark Louis Brunnet Warren J Hendrickson and H F Avery This constituted the election for the members of the board immediately after the meeting the directors met and chose directors for the ensuing year Those chosen were L M De La Vergne president W J Hendrickson vice president H F Avery secretary and treasurer This election caused some change from the composition of the officers for last year Mr Stark giving way to Mr Hendricks as vice president Mr Avery assuming the duties of secretary and treasurer in addition to those of his office The annual report of the company will be given out for publication in a few days

Mining Notes Around Town

UPRAISE IN WALDORF MINE OPENS HIGH GRADE ORE

Some of the richest ore ever found in the Waldorf property in Clear Creek county was discovered last week in the upraise which is being worked in the Wheeling lode through the Tobin tunnel Some of the old time mining men who saw some of the ore which was brought down last week say that they are the prettiest specimens of gray and yellow copper that they have ever seen The ore was assayed for silver and found to run 2 346 ounces in silver to the ton

Mr Wilcox is confident that this strike is the best that has been made in the property since he has had charge of it The ore is becoming richer as the upraise advances They have raised about fifty feet on the vein and it is believed that the rich ore will continue until grass roots are reached The ore body varies from eighteen inches to eight feet in width and two or three hundred feet in length The breast of the drift is looking very well and it is believed that this strike will equal that of the Independence mill years ago

Work on all the other properties is being pushed as rapidly as possible The Paymaster is looking very good It is reported that the lessees who are working on the Stevens shaft have opened up

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Jan. 26.—The mining stock market this morning showed improvement. The volume of business showed an increase of about 35,000 shares over Saturday, and prices, with one or two exceptions, were strong. The chief loser of the day was C. K. and N., whose predicted break arrived this morning, the stock selling as low as 18, although the bulk of the shares brought 18½. Coriolanus was a fractional gainer. Doctor-Jack Pot opened with a fractional gain but dropped back to the old quotation on the close. Elkton remained stationary and El Paso advanced fractionally. Findley and Gold Dollar Cons. both advanced fractionally. Gould lost fractionally on a board lot. Isabella and Lexington both gained fractionally. Mollie Gibson was a light trader at the old quotation, and Portland lost one cent on a small sale. Prince Albert remained stationary. Among the preferred prospects Beacon Hill Ajax gained fractionally. Blue Bell lost fractionally and Eleanor remained stationary all tough 12,000 shares were sold. Gold Sovereign advanced fractionally and Keystone remained stationary. Little Bessie also sold at the old quotation. Mary Cashen gained and Republic advanced fractionally. In the prospects 1st Ernestine and Goldstone remained stationary. Magna Charta gained on a 1,000-share lot. Colonial Dames and Marquette both advanced. Mary Nevin and Dead Shot advanced fractionally. Old Gold lost fractionally but was a trader to the extent of 40,000 shares. Zoe gained to the tune of $1 per thousand.

ELGIN BUTTER.

The market was declared firm at 25 cents, a gain of two cents from last week. The output of the week was 504,000 pounds.

GRAIN LETTER.

Report of Logan & Bryan (by Private Wire), to Otis & Hough.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Wheat—Liverpool ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher. Paris unchanged to ½c lower. Antwerp ⅝c higher. Broomhall cabled estimates Argentine exportable surplus are increasing. A sale of 125,000 bushels to France was reported here. There was nothing reported done at seaboard. Southwest reported cash markets a little slow at about Saturday's prices. Speculative market ruled higher during early part of session on reported active demand for French account. They were reported as heavy buyers of options in New York and southwestern markets. As was the case on Saturday, the bull leader through his brokers had wheat for sale at the advance. It is claimed by those who are in close touch with conditions that there is no disposition on the part of those in control of the situation here to bring about a sharp rally at this time. The selling during the last hour was largely by pit traders and tailers who bought on the early swell. The news, on the whole, continues of a very bullish character and while we shall get sharp reactions from time to time, we look for much higher prices and believe wheat should be bought on the breaks. Estimated cars tomorrow, 75.

Corn—Liverpool unchanged to ⅛c lower. Shipping sales reported 200,000, while seaboard reported six loads taken. Market has been active throughout the day, the May option making a new high priced record. During the last hour a portion of the early advance was lost, due mostly to the weakness in wheat. We feel very friendly to May corn and believe purchases on all fair reactions will make money. Estimated cars, 630.

Oats—A very small market and almost wholly local. Cash market was easy and ⅜c to ½c lower. We think the immediate course of the market will depend largely on the action of corn. Estimated cars, 390.

Provisions—Trade has been very light. There was a sharp demand for January lard and it looks as though short contracts unsettled would be obliged to buy the product from a leading packing concern. The general market opened strong and a shade higher on better hog market at the yards, and fluctuated within narrow limits throughout the session. We are inclined to look for some further breaks in the provision market.

Denver Live Stock.

Denver, Jan. 26.—Receipts were light for Monday but trade was fairly active to the extent of the offerings. The only killing feeder on sale was butcher stuff which sold at steady prices. Some very good western hay fed cows sold at $3.85, showing a strong demand for this class of stock. The stocker and feeder market was steady. A string of choice western feeders sold at $4.25. They weighed a little over 900 pounds. A bunch of fair quality cattle weighing over 1,200 sold at $3.80. There was a wide margin on feeders, $2.60@4.25, being the range of prices. The general tone of the market was good. A bunch of stocker cows was on sale and sold by the head at $20. The fact that there is a demand for cows at this time is significant and indicates a good movement in this class of stock later on. For over a year cows have been very poor sale, but there is a much better feeling toward this class of stock cattle. A light run is expected this week.

Hogs.

Receipts were only fair this morning and the demand good. The market was steady at $6.85 for the top and the bulk of the hogs sold at that figure. Receipts here are running much better in quality and the demand is steadily improving. Supplies are about equal to the demand but the market is in shape to take all that comes.

Sheep.

Receipts continue fair, about equal to the packers' demands, and prices are ruling steady to firm. Most of the arrivals were muttons consigned but a bunch of lambs brought $5.25 and yearlings sold at $5.00. Choice muttons are in demand.

Amusements

"THE BURGOMASTER."

"The Burgomaster," which has made a triumphant tour of 100 straight weeks without a break, from the Atlantic to the Pacific coasts, will be the attraction at the opera house tomorrow evening.

There is not a doubt but this effervescent and ever up-to-date musical travesty is the cleverest and most successful of its kind seen in the country in recent years, and its reception everywhere has been little short of an ovation, as it has captured the good will and praise of the press and public wherever presented.

This musical conceit is of unusual distinction, inasmuch as the book and lyrics are of a kind that not even many comic operas of international reputation can boast with equal merit, and the music is of that light, catchy kind, that people in the city appreciate; it also has that pleasant tingle that brings encores. In fact, there is none of that languid feeling about "The Burgomaster," Fixby's lines and Luder's music appear to suit the actor as much as those across the footlights and the good fellowship, if you can call it that, makes the piece go faster than our music loving public have had the good fortune to see in years.

The company is a large one, numbering over fifty people, and includes a chorus of singing and dancing girls which are said to be a revelation of youth, beauty and grace.

This is the original all star cast that has been appearing in the larger cities for the past two seasons.

THE NEW "YON YONSON."

The Swedes in the city will be glad to learn that a genuine Swede will this time portray the character of Yon Yonson, when this comedy will be seen at the Opera house this evening. The name of the actor is Nelse Erickson. He has been in the United States just a year, a sufficient time in which to learn to speak his lines in English with the dialect he already possesses. Mr. Erickson was born in the shadow of the great mountain of Killagunnarstorp, which rears its mighty head just outside of Helsingborg, the town situated on the shores of Oresund, opposite the Danish town of Elsinore, connected by Shakespeare with the legend of Hamlet and Ophelia. Killagunnarstop itself also figures a great deal in Swedish folk lore. At one time it was supposed to be the hiding place of hobgoblins and witches, Soothsayers and astrologers held high jinks in the ruins of the ancient tower perched on its crag. Kings and queens and dames and squires of noble birth came here to learn their fates from the craft of the wise men and women. Sage after sage was consulted with the mountain and poets like Tegner, Bellman and Strandberg composed verses about it. It was in this atmosphere of story and poetry that Nelse Erickson was born, a son of a Swedish farmer. The lad early took to his books and read with avidity all the stories of fiction and adventure that he could lay his hands on. When he was about 18 years of age he set out for Stockholm, the capital of Sweden. A short while after found him as a "prop" boy in the Royal opera house in Stockholm. In a brief time he was permitted to play parts, and a fine future seemed assured to the young actor, when he suddenly made up his mind to sail for America, in response to urgent solicitations from friends, who painted in glowing colors the happy condition of the American actor. His New York debut was made at Keith's, where he was an instantaneous hit in a Swedish dialect sketch. The manager of "Yon Yonson" saw Mr. Erickson immediately impressed with his work, and engaged him for the spring opening to play the part of "Yon Yonson," Gus Ware. This is the eleventh year of "Yon Yonson," paving the latter of superiority as a Swedish American comedy of this creation from the pen of the late Gus Hoegh.

Irrigation in Pecos Valley, New Mexico.

The cause of irrigation in the Pecos Valley of New Mexico is steadily improving. The Pecos Irrigation company is now replacing its wooden flume across the Pecos river, three miles above Carlsbad on the Santa Fe, by a massive, fireproof stone structure which is to cost $40,000, and will be ready to open for spring irrigation. It is the largest masonry acqueduct ever constructed in America. There are four 100-foot arches of concrete. The flume is 26 feet wide and 18 feet deep, with a flow of 3,000 feet of water per second. The canal claimed to be 75 miles long and can irrigate 100,000 acres.

There are numerous large ranches in the Pecos Valley, one of the most noted is the San Gris ranch, owned by J. J. Hagerman, of Roswell, N. M. It comprises 4,000 acres of deep alluvial soil, located 12 miles south of Roswell near the village of Dagerman. It is all under irrigation with 250 acres in crops. It is now being cut up and will be sold to small purchasers. Mr. Hagerman is a very successful fruit grower, on his South Spring ranch he raised last year 240 carloads of big red apples of a selection of his.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the dandruff germ, which causes falling hair, and, finally, baldness. No other hair preparation kills the dandruff germ. Stop dandruff, there'll be no falling hair, no baldness.

DICKINSON, N. D., Nov. 8, '99.
Have been using Herpicide, and have used about one-third of a $1 bottle, and find that it does all, and even more, than you claim for it. It not only cleanses the scalp from dandruff and prevents the hair from falling out, but promotes a new growth. Have only used the quantity mentioned, and have more hair on my head than I have had for years. I also find that it keeps the hair soft and glossy.

MASTER MARKET

STOCK LETTER.

Report of J. S. Bache & Co. to Otis & Hough.

New York, Jan. 26.—Opening was firmer under the influence of higher prices from London and more encouraging news on Venezuelan question. While market ruled dull during session there was a distinct tendency to lift prices, but the lack of buying orders held them in check, and upon the whole it was disappointing. The advances of about one point in the regularly active list was accounted for by the disposition on the part of some of the pools to slowly advance certain stocks with a view of interesting the outside public. The late dispatches from Washington stated that answers of Germany, Great Britain and Italy to the proposal of minister that the blockade of Venezuelan ports be lifted are expected tomorrow. Foreign houses do not show any concern over the movement. What little movement there was in special stocks were of no consequence. It is remarkable that in such a dull market so little stock is offered for sale and best judges of the market movements believe that this foreshadows a good advance soon.

M'INTYRE & MARSHALL—The gist of the late Associated and other press dispatches on the Venezuelan question this afternoon is to this effect: The outlook is most favorable to the acceptance of arbitration by all the powers and the signing of an agreement to raise the blockade pending such negotiations. This is confirmed by Washington dispatches and England promises to use her influence with her allies to that end. This information caused a much better feeling to prevail in financial circles as well as in the stock market generally, and caused the partial restoration of confidence. As a result there was less pressure to sell and evidence of a better class of buying and renewed support from some of the leading interests. This later was especially noticeable in the Gould stocks as well as in Erie, grangers and trunk lines. As this Venezuelan question is generally agreed to be about the only obstacle in the general stock market situation to a broadening speculation and higher market, its elimination from consideration would necessarily be regarded by the generality of operators as paving the way for a resumption of bull support and activity and a generally better market.

HONORED MEMORY OF ROBERT BURNS LAST NIGHT.

Interesting Program was Heard By the Local Society of Scots—Presentation to Andrew Green and His Wife.

Nearly 300 sons and daughters of Old Scotland were present at the Caledonian hall last evening to attend the celebration of the birth of one of the country's greatest sons, Robert Burns. Owing to the fact that today the Scots will turn out in a body to welcome the members of the Kilties band and that a small reception is being planned for it, the celebration last night was not as elaborate as it usually is but a good program was arranged for last night and the event was greatly enjoyed by all present. It is a custom established several years ago for the Scottish people of the city to celebrate the anniversary of "Bobbie" Burns with a big banquet, but only a light lunch was served last night. The principal address of the evening was made by Rev. Duncan Lamont of Colorado City, who gave a short account of the life of the great poet. Several handsome presentations were made during the evening. Among these were the presentation to Mr. Andrew Green, ex-chief of the local Caledonians, of a costly bronze clock, by D. D. Hetherington, and a silver card plate to Mrs. Green, on behalf of the Caledonian society. A beautiful picture entitled "On the Banks of Loch Lomond" and the complete works of Robert Burns, given by D. C. Sandrock were presented to the society. John Ferguson made the presentations with a neat speech.

The following program was rendered:

Piano solo, Miss Lennox; song, "Bright Grow the Roses," W. S. Riddick; song, "The Brown Tree," Miss Cooper; address, "The Life of Robert Burns," Rev. Duncan Lamont. Intermission; refreshments served. "Tam o'Shanter," P. B. Hill; song, Miss Cooper; song, W. W. Carmichael; speech, A. J. Gillis; song, Mr. Isbell; song, T. C. Strachan.

PROF. AHLERS WILL GIVE THREE "IBSEN" LECTURES IN COURSE

The next lecture in the college lecture course will be given by Prof. Ahlers in the auditorium of Perkins hall on February 3. The subject will be "Ibsen," and in this lecture the early life, environment, apprenticeship in literature, etc., of Ibsen will be discussed, with reference to the contemporaneous dramas "Brand" and "Peer Gynt."

There will be two more lectures on Ibsen in the course, but it is likely that the next lecture after February 3 will be a lecture by Prof. Ahlers.

That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills are such stands proved beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. CASE DISPOSED OF AT PUEBLO

Unidentified Man Found Dead in a Rooming House—More Railroad Changes.

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.
With the Colorado Securities Co.

Pueblo, Jan. 26.—In the district court today Luther Rowan was on trial for burglary of a rooming house in Bessemer while a dance was going on. He stole several coats and other things, and his defense was that he was drunk. He was found guilty, however, and sentenced to 60 days in the county jail and a fine of $100. Emily Baker was charged with bigamy, but her case was continued until next term, as was also the case against Mrs. Lillian B. Montgomery, whose charge was assault to do bodily harm. Mrs. Montgomery is the wife of a prominent lodging house keeper, and was arrested some six weeks ago, charged with having seriously burned her stepson with a hot poker, cut his fingers with a knife, and committed other similar acts upon his person as punishment. The child was taken out of her possession by the Humane society. The case is looked upon with considerable interest by the general public.

AT THE MORGUE—At the morgue is the body of an unknown man, who was found dead in a rooming house on South Union avenue, and in spite of all efforts, so far no definite information can be obtained concerning him. On his person was a card of membership to the Keystone Social club, and on it was the name of John Church. No one seems to know where the Keystone Social club is, and the body is being held in the hope of getting some information. He was a fine-looking man, about 50 years of age, and about five feet eight inches tall. He had the appearance of refinement, but his hands were quite callonsed by hard labor. Heart failure is supposed to have been the cause of his taking off.

MRS. SHOOP'S FUNERAL—The funeral of Mrs. Hattie Shoop took place at the family residence in Minnequa at 2 o'clock today, and was very largely attended, as deceased was extremely popular.

Y. M. C. A. DEBATES—Teams of the Y. M. C. A. debating clubs are wrestling with the question of trusts and the attack on Venezuela.

THREE SMALL FIRES—Three small fires occurred in the city last night, two in Bessemer and one in Dudeyo, about five miles apart. The prompt action of the fire department made the losses small.

NEW RAILWAY CHANGES—Among the many official changes on railway circles of late is the resignation of J. G. Whittebergen, superintendent of the third and fourth divisions of the Rio Grande. Mr. Whittebergen will go to the C. & S. to take a responsible position, so it is said. It is rumored that the first division will be cut into two, or that an assistant superintendent will be appointed. The first is the largest division on the road, covering a distance of about 350 miles, and operating about 25 passenger trains and nearly 200 freights per day. This proposed division change will be a great benefit to Pueblo.

VIA GALVESTON—Many Pueblo merchants who go to New York to buy goods are now in the habit of going via Galveston, calling at Key West and Havana en route. John D. Kellogg, of the Crews-Beggs company, accompanied by Mrs. Kellogg, left last night on this trip. While in New York Mr. Kellogg will place his orders for goods for the 50 departments of this store.

DEAN'S RESIGNATION—J. M. Dean, superintendent of terminals of the Rio Grande in Pueblo, has tendered his resignation to Superintendent Harding for the purpose of going to another company. It is said that he will succeed T. H. Sears as superintendent of the Colorado & Southern in Denver. Mr. Dean is considered one of the best railway men in the west, and it is hoped that the Rio Grande will hold him if possible.

SECURED DIVORCE—Elizabeth W. Ehrgott, quite a famous local singer, secured a divorce today from George M. Ehrgott on the grounds of non-support.

EXAMINING PLANT—F. M. Woods of the Woods Investment company is here from Colorado Springs today, and in company with other officials of the Pueblo Suburban Traction & Lighting company, is making a tour over the system and an examination of the plant. It is rumored that a regular inquest will be held on the business here, and that a good many needed changes will be made in the near future.

CRUELTY—Katherine Cole was today granted a divorce from Benjamin Cole, and Mary S. Thomas from George L. Thomas, both on the grounds of cruelty.

ORDERED DISCHARGED—On petition of Mrs. Nathan Savage, signed also by several prominent citizens, County Judge Gibson today ordered Mr. Savage dismissed from the Horton institute for the cure of the liquor habit. The subject of this order is an old time citizen of this city and was once quite wealthy.

TO SECURE COLLEGE—The Business Men's association is going after the Presbyterian college in dead earnest. President Schmidt and Secretary Lockin have prepared subscription papers which will be circulated at once. Pueblo citizens will be liberal in the matter, and a Denver man having extensive interests here, will head the list with $2,000 at least. The general belief is strong that Pueblo will capture the college.

COLLEGE ELECTRIC PLANT IS MOVED TO NEW QUARTERS

The electric plant of the college was moved yesterday from its old quarters to the new addition recently built on east of the old engine room and the various buildings on the campus are now being lighted from the new station. The new dynamo will be installed in a short time and the lighting capacity of the plant doubled. The plant now contains two 300-volt dynamos and in a short time the 600 volt machine which has been purchased, will be put in.

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE HAS NEW OFFICE ACCOMODATIONS

The office of Prof. Edward S. Parsons, dean of the college, has been removed from room 9, Perkins hall, to room 10.

The new quarters of the dean are much larger than the old, and will allow better facilities for transacting the clerical work of the college. Several new desks and other furniture will be put in. Prof. Parsons will occupy his new quarters today.

VICTOR MAN CHARGED FOR THE WELFARE WITH ABDUCTION OF CRIPPLE CREEK

D. E. Rose's Father-in-law Charges That He Enticed 14-Year-old Boy Away.

Victor Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Victor, Jan. 26.—D. E. Rose, for some time a resident of this city, yesterday was having his goods shipped away intending to leave the town, but was stopped by officers who had received a letter from Rose's father-in-law, W. C. Barrett of Hill City, Kansas, asking them to find Rose and detain him, as a boy about 14 years of age was living with him and keep him from going with the old gentleman. Early this morning Mr. Barrett arrived in Victor and went right to the police station. He told the officers that Rose had enticed his son away from home some time ago (which, by the way, is a criminal offense in Kansas) but Rose had sent the old gentleman word that he would elope the boy's sister, instead of taking him to Colorado Springs. The officers hearing of this, immediately had a warrant sworn out for the latter's arrest, and officers started in pursuit and are expected to intercept the young lovers at Colorado Springs tonight.

INFORMATION WANTED—Word was received by the postal authorities today from Mrs. C. M. Holcomb of Oswego, Kansas, asking for information of the whereabouts of her son Jack, who was last heard of in Cripple Creek, when he wrote home saying that he would leave Victor for New Mexico. He is described as 19 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches tall, complexion and eyes dark, weighs about 150 pounds and has a mission by track. Anyone knowing of his whereabouts will confer an everlasting favor by communicating with the author.

TOO HIGH—Seven of the Bargonist company, which played in this city last evening, fell victims to the high altitude, all fainting at different times during the evening. Miss White, the leading lady, fell in a dead faint in the middle of the last act. The others managed to fall in the dressing rooms. The troupe left for Colorado Springs early this morning, very glad to leave this mountainous district.

RETURNED TO THE CITY—E. E. Goel, who was formerly in business in this city, but recently of Victor, where he sold out his business, has returned to this city and purchased the stock of the American Clothing and Furnishing company, of 205 Victor avenue, where he will continue the business at the same old stand.

DIED IN DENVER—Word was received from Denver today that Miss W. Besser, who kept a cigar and tobacco store in Independence, had died in St. Luke's hospital this morning, where she was taken some four or five days ago. Deceased leaves two children and a sister in Independence. No arrangements have been made as yet for the funeral.

SUNDAY DESECRATION—The better class of citizens of Goldfield are objecting because the Eagle lodge has proposed holding a smoker on some Sunday evening in the near future, and last evening it was decided to call a halt from two of the local pulpits.

STRINGING WIRES—The work of stringing the wires over the Short Line electric tracks to Independence, Goldfield and Victor, was commenced today at Dyer, getting as far with the work as Independence, and it is believed that the active connection of this part of the district will be made by the latter part of the week.

INVITED TO REMAIN—The afternoon two well known Seoul society characters, Margery Coates and George Robinson, were about to leave the city for parts unknown, when they were served by attachment papers and detained for the time being. The two young women were trying to leave about a thirty dollar debt to the McKee Mercantile company, from whom they had received merchandise to that amount.

RETURNED TO VICTOR—Col. Hames, an old time resident of this district, but recently living in Silverton, today returned to Victor, where he expects to remain and take up some kind of business in the city.

A HOLD-UP—Two masked men held up a Midland train at Victor last night, but secured no booty. The train was stopped at the water tank, and the robbers entered the express car, but the messenger refused to open the safe, and they left without securing anything.

MAJOR MILSAPS HAD GOOD AUDIENCE LAST EVENING

The meeting at Salvation Army hall last night which was addressed by Major Milsaps, was one of the most interesting of the kind that has been held here for some time. The major spoke of the conduct of the troops of the United States in the Philippines and had high praises to bestow upon the soldiers themselves and upon the government in whose name they were there.

Major Milsaps will conduct a similar meeting tonight at the same place, his subject being "The Power and Joy of a Christian Life."

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

$100,000 PROFIT IN 5 YEARS ON AN INVESTMENT OF $10,000

READ

Fort Collins, Colo., Jan. 2.—Former Governor Eaton sold a three-fifths interest in one of the reservoirs on the Cache la Poudre for $100,000 cash, representing a profit in less than five years of $70,000, aside from the amounts received each year from water, estimated at $10,000 more.

WE CAN OFFER YOU a tract of 160 acres of good farming land with plenty of water from one of the best irrigation systems in the state of Colorado, at a price, which you can at least double your money in a short time. We can show you prices at which land is selling in this locality from 200 per cent to 300 per cent above what we are asking for it. In tracts of 40 to 320 or more acres each it is located in the best agricultural section of Colorado, close to railroads, good steel rails. In fact every convenience that could be expected in a farming country.

This is a good paying proposition for one person, a number of persons or company, and is an absolutely safe investment for any one who has a surplus amount of money to invest to handle. It pays better than loaning good money. It pays better than owning property for rent. It pays better than business property. It pays better than runs on stocks. And it is sure. Investigate this. We will give you all necessary information and show you the property.
